THREE WOMEN GET DIVORCES

Two Wives Freed from Deserting Husbands and Another on Grounds of Intolerable Cruelty—Gorton S. Dedrick Gets Decree on Grounds of Desertion—Judgment By Stipulation in James Lennon vs. James I. Holland, et al.

Three wives and one husband were granted divorces at the short calendar session of the superior court in this city on Friday. Three of the divorces were granted on grounds of desertion and the other on grounds of intolerable cruelty.

Amy Perkins Bogue of New London was granted a divorce from Albin B. Bogue of New London on the charge of intolerable cruelty. They were married April 11, 1915. Her maiden name was Amy Anna Perkins. She said she was abused by her husband and was often beaten and once her husband said he would shoot her. Mr. Bogue yielded to her and she left her husband, but he told his wife to get out. Edna Elinor Perkins, an aunt of Mrs. Bogue, testified for the young wife. The couple lived with the witness and the latter saw Mrs. Bogue abused by her husband. She said she supported his wife. John Henry Smith told of the way Bogue abused his young wife. Once Bogue said he would stab his wife with a pair of scissors if she did not shut up. Mary Louise Page testified for the abused wife.

On grounds of desertion Mabel M. Robinson Snow was granted a divorce from Chester K. Snow, formerly of New London, now of New Jersey. She resides in New London and her maiden name was Mabel M. Robinson. They were married June 8, 1908.

Edna J. Loomis of New London was given a decree from William H. Loomis of New London. They were married

May 4, 1899, and he deserted in January, 1916.

Gorton S. Dedrick was granted a divorce from Catharine Smith Dedrick, formerly of New York, on grounds of desertion. They were married Jan. 14, 1905, and she deserted him in May, 1908.

Judgment by Stipulation. Judgment by stipulation was granted in James Lennon vs. James I. Holland et al. The stipulation granted the plaintiff's claim of foreclosure of the mortgage described in the complaint, finding the amount of the mortgage debt to be $1,575.00, and limited the time of redemption by all the defendants to the second Monday in July, with legal costs to the plaintiff. The defendants in the case were James J. Holland, administrator, John A. Holland, James J. Holland, Jeremiah P. Holland, Margaret Holland, Margaret Hayes Holland, Mary G. Kroher, Michael J. Holland and William Holland.

The complaint stated that on Nov. 23, 1894, Daniel E. Crouch, then of Norwich, owed Joseph Hutchins, then of Plainfield, $1,500, as evidenced by Mr. Crouch's note for that amount. To secure the note Mr. Crouch mortgaged a tract of land and a dwelling on Claiborne avenue, Feb. 27, 1895, Daniel E. Crouch conveyed the mortgaged premises by warranty deed to Daniel and Margaret Holland of Norwich.

Daniel Holland died intestate Dec. 5, 1914. His estate was administered by Daniel E. Crouch, then of Norwich, and now of Plainfield, N. J. The plaintiff claimed a foreclosure and possession of the mortgaged premises.

ARTICLE BY W. K. DOWE
In Manufacturers' Record Dwells on Manufacture of Oxygen and the Part It Plays in Producing Nitrates.

The Manufacturers' Record of June 22 contains a page article on Oxygen: A Rapidly Growing Industry, by Warren K. Dowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dowe of this city, in which he refers to some of the important uses to which oxygen is put and to the two methods now in use for producing it, electrolytic and liquid air, pointing out the fact that by the latter method there is secured the important by-product nitrogen.

He concludes his article by favoring the Muscle Shoals location for the establishment of a great plant for the development of that waterpower through government assistance and believes thereby that the difficult part of the nitrate problem would be solved, and in a way to benefit the whole country.
